

The London District Catholic School Board provides education that inspires the mind, body and soul. With that agenda, we consistently perform higher than the provincial average in academics, with strength in athletics and the arts as well.

Catholic teachers have to be up to the challenge.

We're making a difference in the lives of our students. Can you?

BOARD

in our Changing World

The Board is exclusively using www.applytoteach.ca to search teacher applicants. A complete application will include:

- > Ontario College of Teachers Certificate of Registration and Certificate of Qualification (Faculty of Education Candidates upon receipt)
 - > Pastoral Reference
 - > Curriculum Vitae
- > Copies of most recent Performance Appraisal (qualified teachers) or Practice Teaching Reports (Faculty of Education Candidates)
- > References (A minimum of two professional references is required.)
 - > Copies of undergraduate transcripts from Universities/Colleges (original not required)
 - > A philosophy of Catholic Education (one page)
- > Preservice Roman Catholic Religious Education Certificate is preferred

Only complete applications are processed.

The initial screening process for teacher candidates for the 2006/2007 school year will commence in late February. We encourage you to submit your application through www.applytoteach.ca as soon as possible.
