In addition to the above, participants will complete 12 HOURS of on-line course work, AND a minimum of 25 HOURS of assignment work in order to fulfill Additional Qualifications Course requirements as mandated by the Ontario College of Teachers. Attendance at all sessions is a compulsory requirement for course completion. Failure to do so will result in an incomplete status. In such cases the Director of the Courses has the final decision. The Director of the Course may recommend completion of time and assignments over a future period with a terminal date of completion. Failure to do so will require the participant to repeat the course. Active engagement by each participant in the classes, liturgical celebrations and activities is expected, and which in turn fosters the faith formation opportunities and enhances the professional adult learning experience of all involved.
