

Student Rubric for Character Portrayal – Oral Presentation

Criteria	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Presentation skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ clarity and projection ▪ posture ▪ eye contact ▪ confidence 	<input type="checkbox"/> People need to listen really closely to hear me <input type="checkbox"/> I only look at my audience if someone gets my attention	<input type="checkbox"/> I sometimes speak clearly and people can hear most things that I say <input type="checkbox"/> I look at some of my audience and am a little calm	<input type="checkbox"/> I speak clearly and people can usually hear everything I say <input type="checkbox"/> I make sure that I am usually looking at my whole audience and usually stay calm	<input type="checkbox"/> I speak very clearly and people can hear everything I say <input type="checkbox"/> I make sure that I look at my whole audience and speak calmly
Fact Knowledge/ Recall <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ preparation 	<input type="checkbox"/> I need a lot of help to find information and tell anyone about it	<input type="checkbox"/> Some of my presentation was prepared and I could tell people some important facts	<input type="checkbox"/> I prepared my presentation and am able to tell people important facts	<input type="checkbox"/> I prepared my information so well that I know my topic really well and can answer any questions people ask
Establishing mood	<input type="checkbox"/> I needed to tell people who I was because they did not know my character	<input type="checkbox"/> I played out some details about my character to help the audience understand my character	<input type="checkbox"/> I did a good job of taking on my character	<input type="checkbox"/> I took on the personality and appearance of my character
Preparation of Character costume and background	<input type="checkbox"/> limited preparation	<input type="checkbox"/> Some preparation	<input type="checkbox"/> good preparation	<input type="checkbox"/> thorough preparation