

Name: _____

INDIVIDUAL RUBRIC - ADVENTURE STORY

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Knowledge and Understanding -complexity of ideas and connection to the story line -understands form and purpose	- uses only a few simple ideas that have little or no connection to the story line - confused about form and purpose	- uses simple ideas that are connected to the story line - understood form and purpose somewhat	- uses developed ideas that are connected to the story line - showed a good understanding of form and purpose	- uses well developed, interesting ideas that advance the story line - thoroughly understood form and purpose
Communication -Purpose - write an adventure story - communication of ideas	- the purpose of the writing is unclear to the reader - communicated ideas inadequately	- the purpose of the writing is somewhat clear to the reader - partially communicated ideas	- the purpose of the writing is clear to the reader - communicated ideas clearly	- the purpose of the writing is clear and engages the reader - communicated ideas clearly and creatively
Thinking - overall structure includes a beginning, middle, and end	- the beginning, middle, and end are unclear or - the beginning is clear, but a middle and an ending are not evident	- shows some evidence of a beginning, a middle and ending or - beginning, middle, and ending are unrelated	- has a clear beginning and middle but ending is not well developed	- story flows smoothly, progressing logically from the beginning to the middle to the end
Application - use of conventions - making connections within and between various contexts	- used very few conventions learned - makes limited connections within and between various contexts	- used some conventions learned - makes some connections within and between various contexts	- used most conventions learned - makes good connections within and between various contexts	- used all or almost all of the conventions learned - makes creative connections within and between various contexts

Comments: