

Each person will be assigned to one of the following roles:

Lead Investigator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- restate the task to ensure the team's understanding of expectations</li> <li>- coordinate the team's attempts to apply their knowledge of adaptations, habitat, food chains, classification of organisms</li> <li>- encourage participation by all team members in selecting of an appropriate 'Makeover Model'</li> <li>- ensure that assigned tasks are in line with the interests and abilities individuals in your group</li> </ul>	Habitat Expert <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- become familiar with the assigned or chosen habitat for your new ostrich</li> <li>- research the interrelationships among plants and animals in the selected habitat</li> <li>- collaborate with teammates in deciding which adaptations would be necessary for your ostrich to fit into the natural 'community'</li> <li>- work with the Forensic Artist to ensure that mock-ups of the new ostrich are suitable</li> </ul>
Forensic Artist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- gather opinions of your teammates regarding the real characteristics and habits of your and brainstorm potential adaptations for your ostrich</li> <li>- prepare mock-ups (drawings) of what you expect the new ostrich to look like</li> <li>- prepare electronic drawings using a paint program, Flash, KidPix, Photoshop Elements</li> <li>- prepare a model of your new ostrich with papier mache or other materials</li> </ul>	Audio-Visual Technician <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- become familiar with presentation software (PowerPoint, HyperStudio, Corel Presentations, Star Office...)</li> <li>- effectively layout the slides with titles, images and words</li> <li>- use a camera to include images of your new ostrich (model, drawings...)</li> <li>- communicate with team members to ensure each person understands their role in the presentation of your ostrich</li> <li>- select appropriate background music, and sound effects for the presentation</li> </ul>